DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in reply to an amendment filed on July 25, 2005.

All independent claims 1 and 11 have been amended. Claims 1-18 are pending.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's argument filed on July 25, 2005 have been fully considered and they are persuasive.

Applicants amended all the independent claims 1 and 11 and added a new limitation which was not part of the original claims.

Applicant's argument is based on the amended claims and argued that the newly added limitation shown above which is added on the independent claims is not suggested/discussed/anticipated by the reference on the record, namely Garrison. As applicant persuasively argued, the limitation in the amended independent claims 1 and 11 recites the patentably distinct features of the present invention.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 2132

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-18 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-15 of the copending Application No. 10/017533 (hereinafter referred as '533 application) (which has been allowed but has not yet been patented).

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

The following is referring to the independent claims

- As per independent claim 1 claim 1 of the instant application and claim 1 of the '533 application recite similar/same limitation about a method of connecting host to a remote network through an access network with a single user password. Furthermore, all elements/limitation of claim 1 of the instant application is recited in the claim 1 of the '533 application, except claim 1 of instant application in the preamble contains the following limitation
"comprising the steps, on the mobile host of": Otherwise, all elements/limitation of claim 1 of the instant application is recited in the claim 1 of the '533 application. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to replace the term "mobile host" as recited on instance application with "the client comprising machine readable instructions stored in the memory medium which when executed by a processor" as recited in the '533 application, since both are refereeing to one and the same thing.

- As per independent claim 11, claim 11 of the instant application and claim 11 of the '533 application recite similar/same limitation about a method of connecting host to a remote network through an access network with a single user password. Furthermore, all elements/limitation of claim 11 of the instant application is recited in the claim 11 of the '533 application, except claim 11 of the instant application at the end of the claim contains the following limitation "granting remote network access to the mobile host". It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to replace the term "granting remote network access to the mobile host" as recited on instance application with "authorize a remote gateway in the remote network to connect the mobile host to the remote network" as recited in the '533 application, since both are refereeing to one and the same thing.

The following is referring to the dependent claims

- As per claim 2, claim 2 of the instant application and claim 2 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 3, claim 3 of the instant application and claim 3 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.

Art Unit: 2132

- As per claim 4, claim 4 of the instant application and claim 4 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 5, claim 5 of the instant application and claim 5 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 6, claim 6 of the instant application and claim 6 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 7, claim 7 of the instant application and claim 7 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 8, claim 8 of the instant application and claim 8 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 9, claim 9 of the instant application and claim 9 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 10, claim 10 of the instant application and claim 10 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 12, claim 12 of the instant application and claim 12 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.

Art Unit: 2132

- As per claim 13, claim 13 of the instant application and claim 13 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 14, claim 14 of the instant application and claim 14 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 15, claim 15 of the instant application and claims 7 and of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 16, claim 16 of the instant application and claim 14 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 17, claim 17 of the instant application and claim 15 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.
- As per claim 18, claim 18 of the instant application and claims 15 and 18 of the '533 application further recite similar/same limitation of the same subject matter.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-18 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the Double Patenting rejection(s) set forth in this office action.
